BODY GUARD FOR GEN. SHERMAN.—A body guard is in course of formation in Pennsylvania for Gen. W. T. Sherman, commander of the Department of Kentucky. It was originally intended for Gen. Anderson, and the suggestion, coupled with an urgent request to raise it, came from that officer to Mr. Palmer, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; but as Gen. Anderson's health was not sufficient to enable him to discharge the rigorous duties of the command, he turned it over to his successor, Gen. Sherman. This corps is being filled by a state of every county in Pennsylvania, who are selected for their education and responsibility. The company resides at Carlisle Barracks. They will be drilled first in the movements of foot soldiers, and in the use of the sabre and pistol, and when prepared to move will be sent to this State, where horses will be procured them.

LATEST INTELLIGENCE FROM GREENSBURG. — We received yesterday evening with a gentle mind from the advance of Col. Harlan and Anderson, who informed us that Gen. Ward was falling back from Greensburg in Green County, to Campbellsville on Saturday. Col. Harlan and Anderson were at Muldraugh Hill, about twelve miles from Lebanon. Runners on the streets are reporting that they have been overtaken by the rebels, and are now encamping near Lebanon. We do not believe these rumors, however, for on Friday last the rebels were on the south side of Little Barren river, and that stream, as well as Green river, was then so high as to render it impracticable to attempt to ford it.

COURT OF WASHINGTON.—The remonstrance of the man calling himself "Colonel George Washington" of the U. S. Cavalry, came up for examination before the Police Court at Cincinnati on Friday. It appears that he imposed upon Col. W. H. Taylor, the commander at Camp Corwin, inciting Col. T. to believe that he had been in the regular service fifteen years, obtaining small sums of money and a horse from Col. Taylor. The decision in the case will be rendered to-morrow. "Colonel Washington" dethroned in this city a few days ago.

ALL BUT ONE.—Our readers will remember having read the resolutions passed by the Anti-Slavery Society and published by us last May, pledging themselves to all within their power to uphold the "abolition of the United States Government." We have now resolved to avoid such a conflict, and to submit to the inevitable fight. We learn that all the members, except one, have left their homes and friends and have enlisted in defense of that Constitution and that they pledged themselves to uphold, when the last bolt of misery, may God help and protect them.

THEFTING BAGS.—We are promised no less than three robbing at Woodhaven on Thursday next. The first will be a match race between Col. D. and Jas. J. White, and the second, between Col. D. and Jas. L. Dorey's Gold Dust and White's Garret Iron Works, for a purse of $1,000 dollars. The second will be between J. B. Park and Edward Everett, and C. Williams' Len. Rogers, and the third a match between P. P. Stow's chestnut mare and Jas. M. Todd's chestnut mare. The nags are all fast and none of them are unknown to us.

THE SWORD EXERCISE.—We would again impress upon the attention of army officers the importance of a familiarity with the sword and bayonet exercise, which is admirably taught by Capt. J. A. Rue, at the parlor of the Masonic Temple. He will give single lessons or furnish a full course of instruction.

EXTRA LUNCH.—A sumptuous lunch will be at the St. Charles, on Fifth street, at half-past one o'clock this morning, embracing all the seat of luxury and many delicacies not in season, for which Raufer is so celebrated.

We regret extremely to learn from the Philadelphia Press of the death of George W. Peterson, Esq., junior partner in the firm of T. B. Peterson & Brothers, book publishers in that city, and we are pleased to learn, have met with remarkable success. They are both experienced editors and will no doubt soon fill up the ranks of their company. They may be found at Col. Boone's office, on Jefferson street, between Fifth and Sixth.

THE SWORD EXERCISE.—We would again impress upon the attention of army officers the importance of a familiarity with the sword and bayonet exercise, which is admirably taught by Capt. J. A. Rue, at the parlor of the Masonic Temple. This will enhance the pleasure of the concert, as the celebrated Col. Becker and his wife will be in attendance when it does come off.

AT A meeting of the officers and members of the Shely Zouaves, Capt. M. C. Taylor, at Camp Sherman, on Saturday, a vote of thanks was tendered to our musical friend, Mr. W. H. Hayes, for a quantity of patriotic music presented to the company, and Mr. Hayes was requested to compose a camp song for the use of the company.

THE SAME ONCE.—The race of some in the immediate vicinity of the city, it was thought, had become extinct. Mr. David Blane, however, who farms near the southern limits of the city, and reared no less than two of the varmints on his premises on Saturday, will be in the thirty-second year of his age.

McCOOK'S ADVANCE.—We are assured that the troops at Camp Novin, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, under command of Gen. McCook, advanced beyond N. M. Creek on Saturday, and took a position nine miles in advance of Camp Novin.

MASON GRAND LOUNGE.—The Grand Lodge of Kentucky Masons will convene at the Temple in this city this morning. A number of delegates arrived in the city on Saturday and yesterday, but the attendees will be full in herefore.

JEFFERSON CIRCUIT COURT.—The Criminal term of this tribunal, the Hon. Peter B. Muir presiding, will commence this morning. We will publish on Saturday a list of the persons who are in prison awaiting trial on charges of felony.

THE DOOR PASSAGE.—We regret to announce the death, after a brief illness, of George E. Dickey, an old and highly respected citizen of Jefferson county. The sad event occurred yesterday morning.

AUNTERS.—Josephine and Henry Athene brother and sister, were arrested by Officers Hall and Cross yesterday, on the charge of stealing the sum of twenty-five dollars from a citizen up town.

SEVEN ARE ARRESTED.—There are seven soldiers in the ranks of the United States who are in prison awaiting trial on charges of felony.
